MORGAN CREEK GOLF PROFESSIONALS

TIM WILSON

CPGA Professional,
Director of Instruction

Tim joined the PGA of BC in 2002. He is a past member of the Canadian Tour and the NGA Hooters Tour. His competitive golf background has helped him understand the intricate workings of the golf swing and how to manage the game on the course. Tim is available for private and group lessons.

GERRY HADWIN

CPGA Class "A" Teaching Professional

Gerry brings to Morgan Creek over 30 years of experience in the golf business. His approach to teaching and knowledge of the game has allowed him to teach students from the scratch golfer to the weekend player. He is available for private and corporate outings.

PATTY JONAS

CPGA Class "A" Teaching Professional

Over 30 years of tournament experience including 2 time Ladies BC amateur and 3 time PGA of BC Champion, combined with being a former member of the Ladies European Tour has contributed to Patty becoming a very successful Teaching Professional with 22 years teaching experience. Patty is available for both group and private instruction.

TOM DOULL

CPGA Professional,
Golf Operations Manager

A member of the CPGA for 10 years. Tom brings to Morgan Creek his experience working at private, semi-private and resort golf courses throughout B.C. He is available for both individual and group lessons as well as club fittings. Tom is currently the only left handed teaching professional on staff.

RAY KWOK

CPGA Professional

Ray is a graduate of the San Diego Golf Academy and joined the CPGA in 2003. His golf industry experience includes being Jr. Academy Director to General Manager. Ray's teaching philosophy is to keep it FUN and SIMPLE. He is available for private and group lessons in english or chinese.

JEFF LINDEMULDER

CPGA Professional

A former Team Canada volleyball player and Psychology major, Jeff's fresh approach to golf gives him the ability to apply these key fundamentals with other sports. Jeff is excited to be working with the Morgan Creek Junior Program this year.
